Capital Southwest Announces Receipt of SBIC License

Dallas, Texas – April 20, 2021 – Capital Southwest Corporation (“Capital Southwest”) (Nasdaq: CSWC), an internally managed business development company focused on providing flexible financing solutions to support the acquisition and growth of middle market businesses, today announced its wholly-owned subsidiary, Capital Southwest SBIC I, LP, has received a license from the U.S. Small Business Administration (“SBA”) to operate as a Small Business Investment Company (“SBIC”).

As an SBIC, Capital Southwest SBIC I, LP will be subject to a variety of regulations and oversight by the SBA concerning, among other things, the size and nature of the companies in which it may invest as well as the structure of those investments. The license will allow Capital Southwest SBIC I, LP to obtain leverage by issuing SBA-guaranteed debentures, subject to the issuance of a leverage commitment by the SBA. SBA debentures are loans issued to an SBIC which have interest payable semi-annually and a ten-year maturity. The interest rate is fixed shortly after issuance at a market-driven spread over U.S. Treasury Notes with ten-year maturities. Current statutes and regulations permit Capital Southwest SBIC I, LP to borrow up to $175 million in SBA debentures.

“We are very pleased to have been approved for our first SBIC license, which has been a strategic priority for Capital Southwest since our transformation to a traditional middle-market lender,” said Bowen Diehl, President and Chief Executive Officer of Capital Southwest. “Our lower middle market strategy is a natural fit with the SBA’s mission of funding underserved markets, including businesses based in low to moderate income areas and businesses owned by minorities, women, or veterans.” Michael Sarner, Chief Financial Officer of Capital Southwest added, “This license will provide us with attractively priced long-term financing, further diversifying our sources of capital and enhancing the flexibility of our balance sheet.”
