Capital Southwest Announces Federal Tax Treatment of 2016 Dividends

Dallas, Texas – February 7, 2017 – Capital Southwest Corporation (“Capital Southwest” or the “Company”; Nasdaq: CSWC) announced today the tax treatments of its 2016 dividends.

Capital Southwest paid dividends totaling $0.38 per share that are attributable to the tax year ended December 31, 2016, with approximately 73.7% of those dividends taxed as long-term capital gains, approximately 9.1% taxed as qualified dividends and approximately 17.2% taxed as ordinary income. Long-term capital gains and qualified dividends paid to non-corporate taxpayers (including individuals) qualify for favorable tax treatment under the Internal Revenue Code (“IRC”) and, for 2016, will generally be subject to a maximum 20% U.S. federal income tax rate (plus a 3.8% Medicare surtax, if applicable). The Company has posted information regarding the U.S. federal income tax characteristics of its dividends that are attributable to 2016 (the “2016 Form 1099 Information”) on its website (<http://www.capitalsouthwest.com/tax-information>).

Non-U.S. resident and foreign corporation shareholders (“Non-U.S. Shareholders”) in a Regulated Investment Company (“RIC”) such as Capital Southwest are exempt from U.S. withholding tax on both “interest-related” dividends and short-term capital gains in accordance with the IRC sections 871(k) and 881(e). In addition, Non-U.S. Shareholders in a RIC are also exempt from U.S. withholding tax on long-term capital gains. Approximately 97.8% of Capital Southwest’s 2016 dividends relate to “interest-related” dividends, short-term capital gains and long-term capital gains. See the “Tax Treatment of 2016 Dividends for Non-U.S. Shareholders” posted on the Company’s website for more details (<http://www.capitalsouthwest.com/tax-information>).

Dividends distributed to Non-U.S. Shareholders may have been withheld to pay U.S. federal income tax. Non-U.S. Shareholders should contact their tax advisor with any questions regarding this information, and its application to any claim for refund of taxes paid to the U.S. Internal Revenue Service.
